CONVENTION PLANS OF D. C. DELEGATES

Arrangements Made to Attend Woman's Party Gathering in Chicago.

GIVEN FLOOR PRIVILEGE,
BUT NO RIGHT TO VOTE

Meeting June 5, 6 and 7 Will Be in the Interest of Susan B. Anthony Suffrage Amendment.

Included in the large delegation which will represent the National Capital at the convention of the newly formed woman's party, which is scheduled for Chicago July 5, 6 and 7, and who will leave Saturday, are Mrs. Harold Walker, Miss Gladys Hinckley, Mrs. George Rublee, Mrs. Herman Gasch, Mrs. William Kent, Mrs. John Kerfoot Haywood, Mrs. John Waldo Connelly, Mrs. George Odell, Mrs. Gilson Gardner, Miss Grace Needham, Miss Edith Goode, Miss Alice Solomons, Miss Sheldon Jackson, Mrs. Helena Weed Hill, Mrs. Nina Allender, Mrs. W. T. Burch, Miss M. E. Dabney, Miss Lucy Burns and Mrs. Charles Edward Russell.

Mrs. John Jay White has already secured Pullman reservations for most of the party, and they will make the trip as one delegation. They admit they will have no votes in the convention, but they will have a voice in all the discussions of the three-day session.

For Suffrage Amendment.

The woman's party will run no candidates and seek no offices, it is announced. Its platform has but one plank—the speedy passage of the Susan B. Anthony federal suffrage amendment, and every woman who sits in the party's convention is pledged to vote on that issue and to withhold her support from any of the political parties which declines to support votes for women.

The Washington women will join the woman voters in all the sessions of the convention, business meetings of which will be held in the Blackstone Theater. The hundreds of women assembled will gather also around the statue of Lincoln in Lincoln Park, and there dedicate themselves and the party to the enfranchisement of the other half of the people of the United States.

Women of every political faith will unite in the new party. Among the voting women who will attend is Mrs. Sarah E. Flannigan of Spokane, Wash., the first delegate to the progressive party's national convention to arrive in Chicago. Mrs. Williams of Washington state is another delegate to the progressive convention, and is pledged to the policy of the Congressional Union.

Will Fight Administration.

Mrs. Dora Phelps Buell is a democrat who telegraphed President Wilson, at the time of his first candidacy for President, that she would organize the women of Colorado in his support. She is now going to Chicago to assist in launching the woman's party, which will hold President Wilson's administration responsible for its record on woman suffrage. Mrs. Joanna Downes, president of the Woman's Democratic Club of Illinois, and Mrs. Seavain, president of the Woman's Republican Club of the same state, will also sit in the convention.

A committee on hospitality, under the direction of Miss Alice Paul, is now completing the arrangements for housing the hundreds of women who will assemble. Chicago suffragists will open their homes to the visitors, and suburban hotels have been reserved for them. Also a lake steamer is chartered, which will provide sleeping accommodations.

PRESIDENT IS TO HEAR OF NOMINATION HERE
Congress Will Prevent His Being in New Jersey for Receipt of News.

President Wilson will be in Washington when the news of his nomination for a second term in the White House is flashed to him from the St. Louis national convention and congratulations begin to pour in on him from all parts of the country. The President's New Jersey friends had long ago prepared to have him on New Jersey soil when the news arrived. They were so anxious to secure Shadow Lawn, the beautiful seashore home which the President later accepted, and when they visited him to offer the house they talked about his being there when the people of the country, through the democratic national convention, conveyed their endorsement of his term by another nomination.

There was then much talk of Congress adjourning before the convention met, and the talk was all wrong. Congress will be sitting with a long sit ahead, and the President will not depart from his tenacious hold view that he should stay in Washington while the lawmakers are doing business.

Depends on Adjournment.

He does not know when he may go to his seashore place. Everything will depend upon the adjournment of Congress.

Mrs. Wilson and other members of the executive household may go to Shadow Lawn the last of June or early in July, depending upon weather conditions, and the President make week-end trips to his summer place until he is able to go for a longer stay.

It is a comparatively short trip to Long Branch and Shadow Lawn, and the President will be there at the end of each week to be with his family.

Secretary McAdoo is understood to be negotiating for a summer home near Spring Lake, a short distance from Long Branch, and Secretary Taft will most likely be with his family at North Asbury, N. J.

To Figure in Campaign.

Whether or not the President gets the news of his nomination at Shadow Lawn, it is there that most of the developments of the Presidential campaign, from the democratic viewpoint, will take place, as the President will be at Shadow Lawn, when he finally does get there, until the early fall.

The St. Louis convention will be a foregone affair that the President he did four years ago, when the democrats balloted many times and when the changes in the outlying were of great concern to each candidate and his numerous friends.

Wins W. C. T. U. Speaking Prize.

Miss Margaret Buckler won the prize in a speaking contest held under auspices of the Southeast W. C. T. U. at the Trinity M. E. Church Friday night. The contest was among pupils of the church Sunday school. Rev. J. Phelps Hand, pastor of the church, presented the medal.

MEANEST MAN STEALS NUTS FROM SQUIRRELS

Sometimes they find a man who robs the poor box in a church or takes candy from an orphan or will take pennies from a baby's hand, but all of these candidates for the position of Meanest Man on Earth will have to look to their laurels. The committee on tightwads has discovered what is believed to be the ultimate in petty thievery, and a large section of Capitol police is on the look for a mysterious stranger in a black derby hat. The charge against him is stealing the nuts from the squirrels in Capitol Park. Each morning the high keeper of the nut supply takes out two buckets of nuts to feed to the little animals, but of late the squirrels have been complaining that some one got to their breakfast before they had a chance at it. The black-derby person is suspected and sleuths are out today watching the nuts.

DEMOCRATIC WOMEN FOR ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

Officers of National Organization
Outline Publicity Work for All Summer.

Plans for an active campaign in behalf of democracy were discussed at a meeting of the National Democratic Women of America at the New Ebbitt House Friday evening. Mrs. George A. Ames, president of the organization, announced that meetings would be held all summer in view of the coming election. The next meeting is to take the form of a democratic rally, details of which are to be announced later.

Mrs. Helen N. Doocy, chairman of the campaign and publicity committee, stated that she had received about 100 letters, representing practically every state in the Union, asking for literature. She explained that the committee had had printed 5,000 copies of an address received made before the organization by John F. McCarron of Illinois, secretary to Senator Lewis of that state, and that this will form part of the campaign literature. She also reported that a recent theater benefit, a tea and a supper benefit had all been successful.

Announcement was made that June 15 a musical is to be given under the direction of Mrs. George Metcalf, chairman of the music committee, and Mrs. Margaret Campbell. Mrs. Henry Churchill Cook, chairman of the committee on dramatics, and Mrs. Lila Fagg Morgan, chairman of the lawn fete committee, were chosen as treasurers of the campaign committee. Mrs. Ames told of her recent trip to Philadelphia, where, she said, the democratic women are willing to co-operate with the Washington women and to affiliate with the National Democratic Women of America. Mrs. Ames stated that she had told the women in Philadelphia of the activities in this city in behalf of Washington, particularly with regard to the work being done here by the organization of which she is president. Work of arranging for activities is to begin immediately, according to plans outlined.

ORATORIO SOCIETY PLANS TO PRESENT "ST. PAUL"

Ambitious Musical Undertaking Tomorrow Evening at the First Congregational Church.

The Washington Oratorio Society, Sydney Lloyd Wright, musical director, will present Mendelssohn's "St. Paul" tomorrow evening at 8:15 o'clock in the First Congregational Church. For the first time since its organization, five years ago, this society appears before the public with a request to the citizens of Washington to show their appreciation for the highest ideals in choral music by paying admission to hear the oratorio. To the four preceding concerts admission has been free, the society asking only for a silver offering to help meet its expenses. It has now grown beyond the point of being supported by such hazardous methods. The society has grown to 215 voices and the demands upon the treasury to produce a work of such magnitude as Mendelssohn's "St. Paul" are larger than can be met by trusting to the public to support it through mere generous impulse.

Oratorio in America has been neglected for years, though a big revival of interest is shown from reports throughout the country during the last two seasons. From a financially co-operative standpoint neither Washington nor any other big city shows appreciation for the enormous enterprise undertaken by the music-spirited citizens each year. The public which so rarely does its share of the work and critics, but otherwise takes no practical interest, only a few of the many thousands even contributing to the receipts at the box office.

The Washington Oratorio Society stands for the local musicians, local uplift, local support and local appreciation. Its officers, musical directors and members of the chorus give hours of study, work and enthusiasm each week gratuitously for the education, edification and entertainment of the public. In its peculiar efforts it is a benefactor upon educational lines to the public.

The price of admission tomorrow night has been placed at such a scale as to make it possible for any one to hear the work. And the splendid ability both of director and choral body should assure an audience to tax the capacity limits of the church.

WEST VIRGINIA PICNIC.

Special Committee Appointed to Arrange Place and Date.

All arrangements as to date, place and time of the second annual picnic of the West Virginia Society of the District of Columbia are to be made by a special committee appointed by the president, Henry S. Baker. This committee, which will meet Friday at 8 p.m. at the New Ebbitt House, consists of:

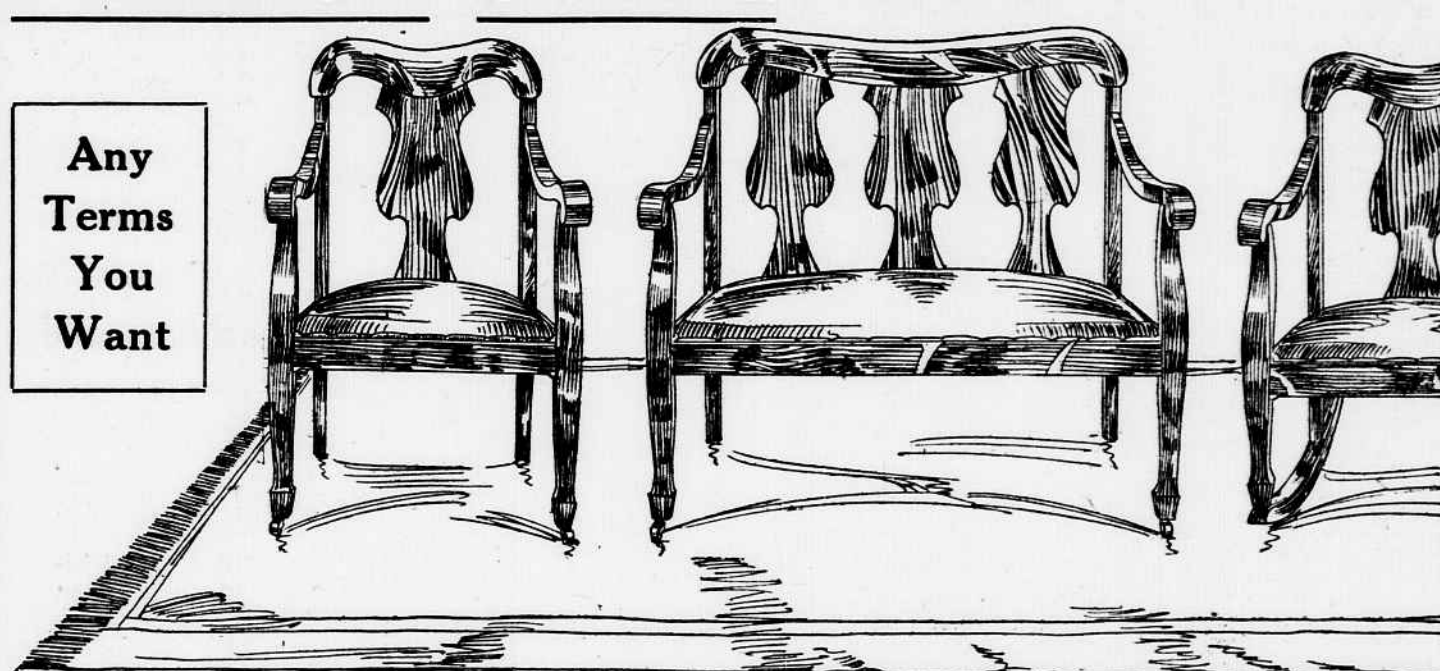

William T. George, chairman; Dr. J. Ward Mankin, vice chairman; Clarence H. McGinnis, secretary; Lorel N. Morgan, treasurer; Leo B. Russell, Frank W. Legge, Charles T. Chapline, Herman C. Hensen, Dr. F. M. Smith, Frank G. Green, A. E. Barr, E. W. Van Metre, J. William De Grange, the Misses Anna Patton, Nellie Helms, Helen Mayers, Lola Price, Ada Bartlett, Katherine Lyons, Ina F. Nelson, Mrs. H. B. Tritton, Mrs. Virginia B. Sheets and Miss Alice Engle.

Emanuel Zembower, sixty-five, employed at Cumberland, Md., was fatally injured when struck by the automobile of G. M. Saville of Levels, W. Va.

Painful Swollen Veins
Quickly Relieved and Reduced

Mrs. R. M. Remier of Federal, Kan., writes an interesting account of her success in reducing a severe case of enlarged veins that should be encouraging to others similarly afflicted. She suffered with badly swollen and inflamed veins (in fact, one had broken) for more than seven years before she became acquainted with Absorbine, Jr., and used it. Absorbine, Jr., was faithfully applied for several weeks, and to quote from her letter, "The large knots in the veins left, it was all nicely healed, and has not bothered me since."

Absorbine, Jr., is an antiseptic liniment—cooling, and soothing. Safe and pleasant to use. $1.00 and $2.00 at your druggist or postpaid. Liberal trial bottle postpaid for 10c in stamps. W. E. YOUNG, P. D. F., 276 Temple St., Springfield, Mass.
